

Employee engagement begins before day one

When you have a solid onboarding program in place, employee engagement can begin before day one. By simplifying and automating time-intensive and manual HR processes, you'll streamline new-hire form completion activities, lessen chances for data input error, ensure compliance and get your new employee off to a great start.

BirdDogHR[™] Onboarding is a cloud-based solution for companies to organize and automate the process and paperwork required to add a new employee to your company. This makes it easy for the company and the employee to efficiently and effectively process new-hire paperwork and improve time to productivity.

Accelerate Employee Proficiency

Employees spend more time learning about culture and responsibilities and less time filling out and returning paperwork.

Save Time and Money

Automate manual or paper-based processes to save administrative time and get the employee on the job faster.

Reduce Organizational Risk

Ensure employee data is handled in a consistent and compliant manner.

An employee's first impression of your company is critical to set the stage for high employee engagement. The easy-to-use BirdDogHR Onboarding module simplifies your onboarding process.
